*Composite and benchmark performance are for the period January 1, 2014 through December 31, 2018.

n/a¹ – The three-year annualized standard deviation measures the variability of the composite and the benchmark returns over the preceding 36-month period.

The three-year annualized standard deviation is not presented for 2014 and 2015 due to less than 36 months of composite and benchmark data.

Ultra Select: The Ultra Select Program has an objective to match market returns during rising equity markets and to outperform the S&P 500 during falling equity markets. Assets are invested to either 100% money market or 100% leveraged equity mutual funds. Ultra Select analyzes data daily with a formula based on mean reversion techniques and statistical probability within defined parameters. This mechanical model will manage risk through short-term exposure to the market during periods of high probability of market up turns and remaining in the safety of the money market up to 80% of the time. The S&P 500 Index is a market capitalization-weighted index of 500 widely held stocks often used as a proxy for the stock market. It measures the movement of the largest issues. Standard and Poor's chooses the member companies for the 500 based on market size, liquidity, and industry group representation. Included are the stocks of industrial, financial, utility, and transportation companies. The Ultra Select composite was created January 1, 2014. Portfolio Strategies, Inc. (PSI) is a registered investment adviser with United States Securities and Exchange Commission in accordance with the Investment Advisers Act of 1940.

Portfolio Strategies, Inc. (“PSI”) claims compliance with the Global Investment Performance Standards (GIPS®) and has prepared and presented this report in compliance with the GIPS standards. PSI has been independently verified for the periods January 1, 2004 through December 31, 2018. The verification report is available upon request.

Verification assesses whether (1) the firm has complied with all the composite construction requirements of the GIPS standards on a firm-wide basis and (2) the firm’s policies and procedures are designed to calculate and present performance in compliance with the GIPS standards. Verification does not ensure the accuracy of any specific composite presentation.

The firm’s list of composite descriptions is available upon request.

Results are based on fully discretionary accounts under management, including those accounts no longer with the firm. Past performance is not indicative of future results.

The U.S. Dollar is the currency used to express performance. Returns are presented gross and net of management fees and include the reinvestment of all income. Net of fee performance was calculated using actual management fees. The annual composite dispersion presented is an equal-weighted standard deviation calculated for the accounts in the composite the entire year. Policies for valuing portfolios, calculating performance, and preparing compliant presentations are available upon request.

The investment management fee schedule for the composite is 2.50% from $20,000 to $500,000, 2.25% $500,001 to $1,000,000, 2.00% $1,000,001 and above. Actual investment advisory fees incurred by clients may vary.
